NEW FRIENDS AND OLD FRIENDS

Make new friends, but keep the old,
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine, will age, mellow, and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test —
Time and change — are surely best.
Brow may wrinkle, hair grows gray,
Friendship never knows decay.
For amid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
(author unknown)

1999 marks the closing of a millenium, but not the ending of our friendships. The bonds that we've made with classmates will always be cherished. We have produced long lasting memories and have paved the way to our futures within the boundaries of Mansfield Senior High School.

Part of growing up is moving on. For the rest of our lives, we must adapt to change. Principal Mr. Greg Smith's presence will be missed; yet, we are confident in the leadership of Mr. Harold Dean. As the class of 1999 enters the work force, military, or college, we are sure that the future senior classes will step up to their positions of responsibility and leadership.

Before we pass on the honor of serving as co-editors of the Manhigan, we would like to thank a few people. The yearbook staff possessed outstanding talent and dedication and we'd like to thank them for their hard work throughout the 1998 - 1999 school year. We'd also like to show our gratitude to Ms. Hurst. Her persistence enables the staffs to create improved yearbooks year after year.

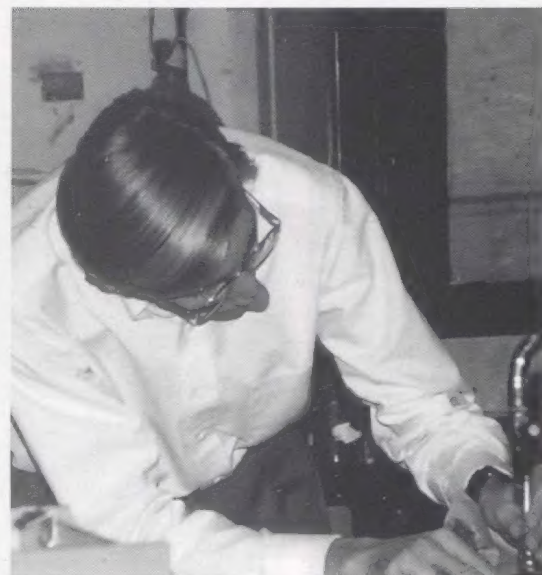

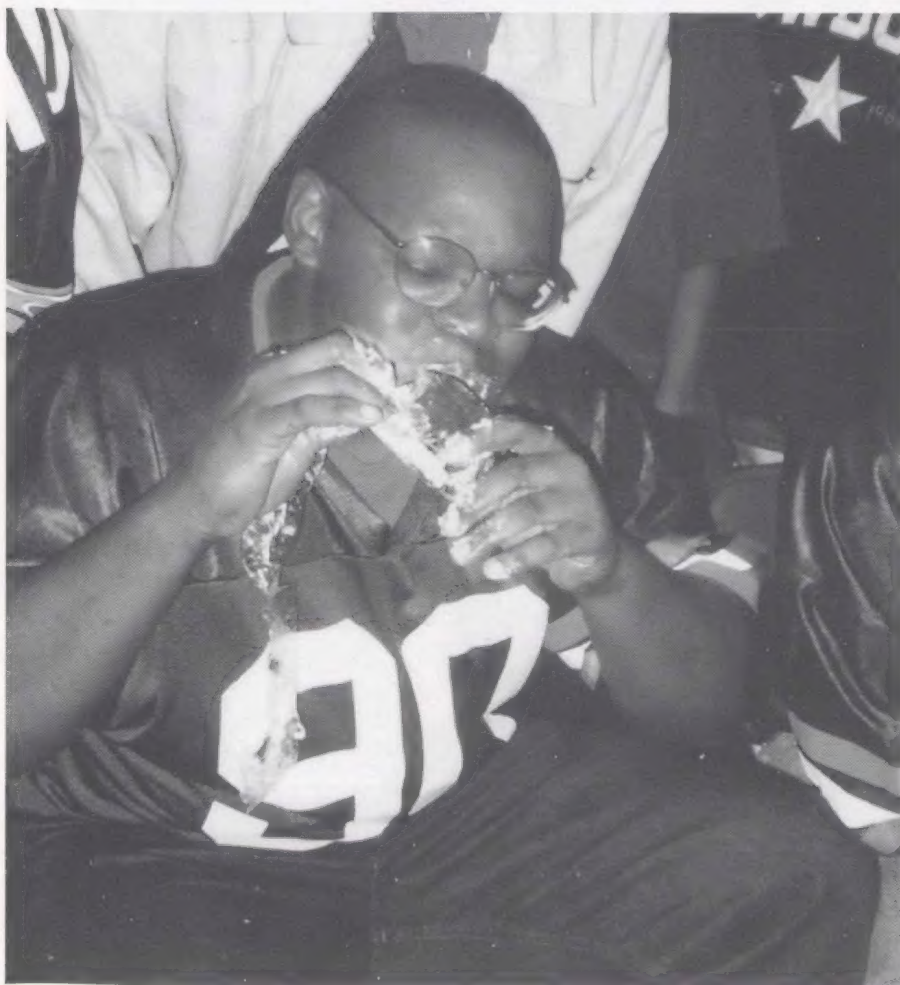

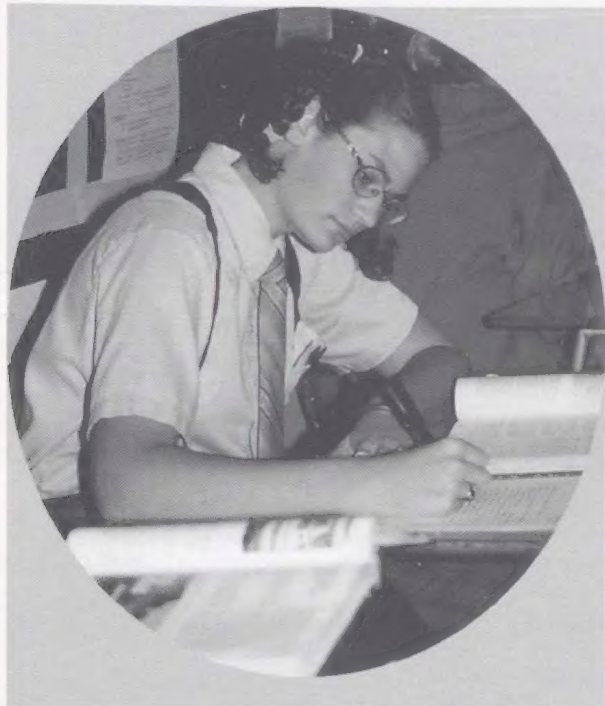

As we graduate, we wish our fellow class members and remaining underclassmen the prosperity we've worked so hard to achieve. As time progresses, let our friendships never grow old and our memories never fade.

Jackie Bell and Sara O'Bryan
Manhigan Co-Editors, Class of 1999

A look back at the class of 2001

What has been your most embarrassing moment at school?

"At our first pep rally of the year we were playing in the band and some of us got up and did a dance for a half-time show. We had to do a kick step, and to avoid knocking a stand over I tried to kick higher than normal. I lost my footing, flew into the air, and fell knocking two music stands and two chairs over. Everyone in the school saw it!" — Kristina Butke

"In 9th grade English we had to sing and dance for another class." — Kelly Besch

What's your favorite quote or saying?
"It takes two people to speak the truth - one to speak, and another to hear." (H. D. Thoreau) — Amber Sloan

"You'll hardly know who I am or what I mean." (Walt Whitman) — Rachel Demyan

"Ignorance doesn't justify evil." — Jessica Amadio

"The hardest thing in life to learn is which bridge to cross and which one to burn." — Shamille Black

"Throughout life people will make you mad, disrespect you, and treat you bad. Let God deal with the things they do because hate in your heart will consume you too." (Will Smith) — Michelle Lehman

"Get over it." — Amber Litell

"As you leave one room by one door you enter a whole world with many more doors." — Les Meadows

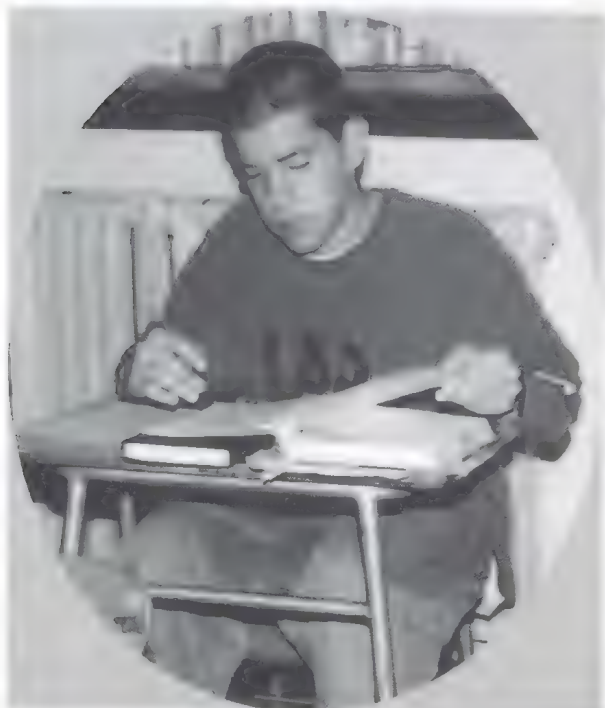

"Stand up for what is right even if you're standing alone." — Alicia Tucker

Sara O'Bryan —

You're on your way! The future is yours! Your focus, determination, and wonderful, wonderful sense of humor are the things that make us confident that you will make your mark on this world with flying colors! We love you very much.

Love, Dad, Mom, Holly, and Alex

Andy Alt —

Andy, with your determination we know you will reach and accomplish the goals you have set for yourself. We are very proud of you. Congratulations! Best wishes! Good luck! We love you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Hadley Lehman —

When she was good, she was very, very good, and when she was bad (which wasn't too often), we still loved her and her spunkiness, sense of humor, and determination!

Love, Mom and Dad

John L. Hess, Jr. —

Congratulations!! You made it. We are so proud of you. Love you, Mom, Dad, Janese, and kids

Matt Adair —

As you enter this new "trail" in your life, remember your keys to success: focus, personality, commitment, and style. We are very proud of you.
Love, Mom and Dad

Kenneth Smith —

To our son, Ken, always the sportsman! Finally made it to the finish line - good luck!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Rick

Francine Woodruff —

I started preparing myself for this day since you started preschool. I am so proud of you! I know you will do well in anything you choose to do.
Love, Mom

Nick Shasky —

Hard work will mean success. Continue the hard work, and you will be truly fulfilled. We are very proud of your accomplishments thus far.
Love, Mom and Dad

Diana Graves —
Hey, they are finally letting me out of here! We love you so much. Best wishes for the future.
Love, Mom and Dad

Jackie Bell —
Together, as parents, if we could give you one thing, we would give you the ability to see yourself as we see you. Then you would realize what a truly special daughter you are! May you go on to capture whatever wishes are in your heart.
We love you, Mom and Dad

Jeffrey Bell —
From the day you were born you brought sunshine into our house with your clowning around. Always living your life like a tea kettle... up to your neck in hot water! So many people believe in you, Jeffrey. make sure you're one of them.
We love you, Mom and Dad

Yoshianna Julia La'Net Ballard —
Just look at you now - from 1st grade to the 12th! You are a very special and loving daughter. Always put God first.
Love, Mom and Dranzell

Michael (Bollfrog) LaFlamme —
 Congratulations! We're proud of you. Good luck.
 Love you, Mom and Sis

Adam Troyer —
 First day of school and you just found out you only have 12 years to go! You made it through with flying colors and we are so proud of you in so many ways.
 Love you always. Mom and Dad

Sara E. Kohler —
 Bear, we love you very much and we wish you a lifetime of love, happiness, and success.
 Love, Mom and Dad

Athena Lillibridge —
 We are so very fortunate to be part of your life. We wish you happiness and success in the future. I will always be your friend but I am very proud to call you my daughter.
 Always reach for the stars.
 Love, Mom, Sabrina, and Don

Jeremy Haynes —

Where are you going my little one? Where are you going my baby, my own? Turn around and you're one. Turn around and you're four. Turn around and you're a young man going out of the door.

Love always, Mom, Dad, Mere, and Jon

D. Nicholas Dewald —

The answers to the big questions in life are the same as the answers to the big questions in running. Just do the best you can with what you've got.

Love, Mom and Dad

Trish A. Thoman —

What a little cutie! Even at the age of 2. What a wonderful person you have turned out to be. With your great sense of humor and intelligence you are a young woman that any parent would be proud to have as their daughter, and we are.

With all our love, Mom and Dad

Jonathan Szdanoff —

From "ShooBop" to college! Yesterday's memories lead to a wonderful future.

Love, Mom and Dad

Joni Douglas —
 Congratulations, baby doll! It's time to spread your wings and conquer the world. We are proud of you.
 Love, Mommie and Daddy

Jeremee and Jared Butts — Remember this: eighteen and O.U.T. Well, here's the meaning of "out" - On Unlimited Time. We are so thankful and blessed to have the both of you and we are so very proud of you. Thank you, double "B"s.
 Love. Mom and Dad

Elizabeth Campbell —
 Elizabeth, thanks for all the joy and happiness you have brought us.
 Love, Dad, Mom, Shawn, and Sadie

Frank Lee Spears —
 Just putting in my time.

Pride and hard work make a winning season

"This year was a major success because anytime you beat Sandusky, Fremont Ross, Madison, and Massillon in a season, it is a major accomplishment. These are teams we haven't beaten in years," proclaimed head coach Stan Jefferson.

The Tygers had a complete turnaround of a 2-8 previous season to a strong 8-2 campaign. With 16 returning seniors, they had high expectations. David Davis expressed, "It was the Tiger Pride and dedication that separates us from past teams".

The Tygers came roaring into the season with a stunning victory over Westerville North. In addition, they upset previously undefeated and state ranked Fremont Ross. Throughout the season the Tygers were contending for the last play-off spot but fell just short. Ali Thompson replied, "This year was a success because we pulled a complete turn around from last year".

"Thumping Massillon was my highlight because it's no mistake that we beat them 21-0," stated Jared Butts. Defense coordinator Steve Helbert remarked, "Blowing out Madison was most memorable because of the rivalry."

Conference awards were given to many players. Jereme Butts was heralded Offensive Player of the Year. First team selections were Jared Butts, Littleton Lloyd, Ali Thompson, Jermaine Bradley, Erik Dandy, and Jason O'Neal. Second team offense placements were presented to Jamarr Lindsay, Josh Brown, and Billy Adkins. Defensive second team mentions were given to Jeremy Haynes, David Davis, and Maurice Bradley.

Many players received district honors. First team Northwest awards were given to Jared Butts, Jereme Butts, and Erik Dandy. Coach Stan Jefferson was honored as Northwest Coach of the Year. Second team honors were issued to Ali Thompson, Jermaine Bradley, and Jason O'Neal. State honors are given to first team Northwest District players also.

Jason O'Neal received Most Improved which was one of the major awards handed out at the Tiger banquet. The Jimo Adams award was handed to Jermaine Bradley and Jared Butts. The Offensive Captains' award went to Jared and Jereme Butts. The Defensive Captains' awards were earned by Jermaine Bradley and Erik Dandy. The Coaches' award was handed to Erik Dandy and Jereme Butts. Finally the Most Valuable Player was presented to Erik Dandy, Littleton Lloyd, and Jereme Butts.

Lady Tygers stand proud

"Teamwork" was the theme that pulled the lady Tygers through their strenuous season. Although their record didn't show many victories, the team earned numerous accomplishments on the court. Captain Jenny Davis stated, "An accomplishment that we made as a team occurred at the Ashland game; we played hard which earned us a little more respect from the other teams." Altogether, their accomplishments included building positive attitudes, playing together defensively, serving more aggressively, and learning how to work together. Captain Jodi Dean remarked, "We achieved a lifelong lesson. We learned to never give up and we always gave our best."

The team's confidence was challenged several times throughout the season. During the discouraging season their determination to overcome many obstacles carried them through various misfortunes. After coming so close to victory in the Ashland game the girls faced yet another defeat. Even though the team lost, the girls came home in high spirits knowing they played hard. Many team members remembered the Ashland game as the highlight of their season. Junior Tara Duffy exclaimed, "Playing the Ashland game will always be the highlight of our season. We put our hearts into it. Even though we didn't win, it felt like we did."

Earning the Captain's Award were Jenny Davis and Jodi Dean. Jenny Davis also received Most Valuable. Senior Missie Feltner left with Most Improved. Tonya Perry and Tessa Keller were presented with the Coach's Award. Second Team Ohio Heartland Conference was awarded to Jenny Davis and Bethany Frantz. Honorable Mention Ohio Heartland Conference was given to Jodi Dean and Arianna Howard.

The Lady Tygers stuck together through all of their trials and tribulations and in the end still held their heads high. Senior Tonya Perry remarked, "I will always remember just being together as a team. We had a lot of laughs. We were more than a team; we were also good friends."

Tygers show team unity

"The regular season was full of ups and downs but as we approached the end of the season and the tournaments we began to play with more emotion and as a team," replied Captain Matt Adair. With a first year coach the Tygers ran into difficulties from time to time. "With a new coach we had to start from scratch and work ourselves up from there. We also had to make many adjustments," stated Captain Jon Sazdanoff. Many returning lettermen had to adjust to the new strategies and positions. As the season progressed the players became familiar with the coaching and played with great intensity. With this level of intensity the Tygers finished the season with respect and dignity.

The Tygers entered the playoffs with a match against Vermilion and came back from a 0-1 deficit to win 3-2. Next the Tygers faced Lexington in the Sectional semi-finals and lost a hard fought battle in double overtime 2-1. Captain Kevin Uhde remarked, "My most memorable moment was saving the penalty kick with two minutes left which sent us into overtime."

The season ended with the annual awards banquet. The team MVP was given to Kevin Uhde. Rudy Wolf was honored with the Golden Boot award for scoring the most goals. The Most Improved award went to Matt Adair. Nick Sazdanoff received the Coach's award. The recipients of the Captain's awards were Matt Adair, Jon Sazdanoff, and Kevin Uhde. Kevin Uhde and Rudy Wolf were named to the first team all-Conference. Uhde was also selected second team all-North West district and Wolf was selected Honorable Mention all-North West district. Second team all-Conference was handed to Ricky Minard while Jimmy Derat and Nick Sazdanoff finished off with Honorable Mention OHC.

"Even though the beginning of the season was tough we fought until the end and ended on a good note," commented Coach Dutka. by Matt Adair, Alexis Miller, and Brittany Profit

Strength and experience shape season

Lady Tyger soccer opened a new chapter with the addition of Joe Evans as new head Varsity coach. "It was difficult to adjust at first because we weren't used to working that hard, but Joe helped us get into shape and achieve what we wanted" stated senior Diana Graves. Hard work payed off towards the end of the season and the girls ended with a record of 6-12-0.

Throughout the season the girls continued to improve with the commitment of their six starting seniors and a strong core of underclassmen. "Our goal was to get the team to work together and have fun" stated Jennifer Gutshall. The team worked their hardest during the Madison and Lexington games. They kept their opponents to three goals a piece. "We played really tough, and the defense pulled together" replied senior captain Julia Laux. Other captains included Kathleen Besch and Emily Exten.

The season was filled with many triumphs. "The highlight of the year was when we traveled to Findlay and won our first tournament game 4-1" replied underclassman Christina Aivaliotis. Despite winning their first tournament game they went on to lose in the second round against archrivals Madison Rams.

Team awards were honored to Pam Prinz for the Most Valuable player, Emily Exten for the Coach's Award and Julia Laux for the Most Improved player. Receiving the Captains' Awards were Besch, Exten, and Laux. The Coach's Choice award went to Laura Hester and Elizabeth Campbell.

OHC recognitions were given to Prinz and Pam Richard for First Team. Exten and Besch received Second Team honors. Honorable Mention was given to Gutshall and Laux.

Harriers continue excellence

"The boys winning the Richland County Invitational for the second straight year was one of my best memories this year. Also, the girls' team progressing to the regional meet for the first time in four years is a memory which will stand out in my mind," remarked Coach Shawn Jackson.

The Tygers' season was one with many highlights. At the Tiffin Invitational, one of the largest cross country meets in the country, both teams had respectable finishes. "It's amazing to see how many runners are lined up at the starting line at a race like this," commented senior runner Tim Drouhard. The big event of the season was the Cat Pack Invitational, where the girls finished fifth and the boys finished third overall.

"I love how the Cat Pack invite is the last big meet before OHC and the road to State," commented senior runner Nick Dewald after the race. The team was very lucky because they didn't graduate any seniors last year and were able to continue a strong tradition of excellence.

Depth was the only thing that kept the boys' team from qualifying to the state meet. Nevertheless, team captain Dewald still managed to his way through a challenging regional meet to qualify to State meet for his third straight year.

On the girls' side, captain Monique Brent led the team to their best season yet; she finished second in the conference, third in the district, and two at the regional meet. Improvement on the part of Monique Brent and Kari Drouhard helped to take the team to the level. Brent commented, "I miss all of my teammates this year. Our team got along so well this season. The team has always been very close knit."

Tygers' determination pays off

"Our team showed considerable improvement from previous years," commented junior Cameron Haring.

The golf team began practices earlier than ever in preparation for the upcoming season. "Our hard work and dedication payed off as the season progressed," remarked team captain Andrew Goosman. Along with the early start of the season came an exceedingly high turnout of new golfers compared to previous seasons. The team included sixteen boys and two girls.

Once again, the first match of the season was the highly competitive OHC warm-up at Brookside Golf Club. The match foreshadowed what the season would hold for the Tyger golf team because of the stiff competition of the OHC teams. As the season progressed, the Tygers gained knowledge and skill of the game that would lead to a successful season. With this knowledge they strengthened team unity and gained respect from other OHC teams. The season concluded with the Sectional meet at the Bucyrus Country Club. The team showed tremendous improvement by dropping 30 strokes off last year's sectional score. "Our preseason goals were to lower our average scores and to be more consistent," commented Matt Hunter. The team's aspirations were met with a strong finish at the Sectional match.

The team celebrated the conclusion of the season with the annual awards banquet. Earning the Captain's Award was senior Andrew Goosman. Receiving the Coach's Award was sophomore Matt Hunter. The Most Improved award was captured by Cameron Haring. Winning the Most Valuable award was freshman Andy McIntyre. Coach Scott Jones commended McIntyre for his hard work and determination throughout the season. "With only one departing senior the team should continue to improve in the future" predicted Coach Jones.

Accomplishments abound Tyger tennis

"We had a great season with lots of memories and lots of fun," commented Hadley Lehman. The Lady Tygers brought home a number of victories to finish with a season full of accomplishments. A returning varsity squad and the addition of a new coach led the girls to a 12-4 record.

One of their greatest successes came with the team victory at the Sandusky Invitational. Jackie Bell, Rachael Stein, and Shannon Smith swept the singles' brackets. Rachel Demyan, Katie Nichols, Sara Kohler, and Hadley Lehman won strenuous matches which also propelled a victory over seven other teams.

The wins at Sandusky motivated the girls into the OHC meet. The girls shifted roles. Bell and Smith competed in the first doubles' bracket. The combination was able to capture the overall win. Demyan and Nichols won their first match at second doubles and nearly pulled off a finals confrontation against Ashland. With Stein's help at first singles, they placed fourth out of the eight OHC teams.

Bell and Stein exceeded their expectations at the Sectionals held in Sandusky, Districts held at BGSU, and State held at OSU. The doubles' partners conquered the Sectionals and qualified first into the Districts. They defeated their first two opponents but fell in their third match. They recovered to finish third and move on to State. Bell and Stein faced a difficult double team from Upper Arlington and lost 6-1, 6-4. "Even though we didn't extend further than the first round, State was the best way to end the season," stated Bell.

The MVP and Captain's Award went to Bell. Smith captured the Coach's Award. Most Improved went to Lehman and Nichols took home the Best Doubles Player award.

The ladies seized several goals. Their spirits heightened with the triumphs at the Sandusky Invitational, OHC tournament, and State.

Hard work makes memories

The abundance of volunteer hours put forth by the junior class helped to make this Homecoming a great success. Some volunteers donated as many as 18 hours. Brittany Profit, junior class treasurer commented, "After the assembly was over we felt proud of the many hours of hard work we put into it."

The theme of this year's homecoming was "Dreaming of You." Also a song by Selena, it was sung by our choir. Feature soloists Blythe Evans and Dashanna Favors were complimented beautifully by the orchestra as they sang the theme song. The underclassmen attendants chosen to represent the court were freshman Jill Fuller escorted by Chris Caley, sophomore Kari Drouhard escorted by Allen Vandyburg and junior Katie Nichols escorted by Jeremy Jacobs. The senior representatives were Chakeeta Moore escorted by Garland McCruter, Tonya Perry escorted by Luke Tackett, and Nyshia Brooks escorted by Jeremee Butts.

This year's crown went to the attendant who received the hot pink roses. Nyshia Brooks earned the honor of serving as queen. She was shocked when she realized that she had received the winning roses.

"I was surprised because I had been nominated since my freshman year, but I never thought I'd become queen." After receiving recognition of queen she was presented with the game ball by captains Jared Butts, Jermanie Bradley and Erik Dandy.

Although the Tygers fell to Marion Harding 24-10 the spirit of the dance was not affected. The gym was beautifully decorated under moonlight and clouds complimenting the theme. The dance ran smoothly despite the controversy surrounding a new age policy. The policy stated that no persons could attend unless presently enrolled in grades 9-12. Ms. Lyon, junior class advisor, commented, "The students handled the policy well and found a positive way to compromise with Mr. Smith."

Tygers take it to State

"Our first goal was to compete for OHC. Next, we went for the sectional championship. Once those were reached, we moved to higher goals one step at a time," remarked Coach Gregg Collins. The Tygers went beyond their conference expectations and captured the conference, sectional, district, and regional crowns.

The foundation of the team's "chemistry" originated at an early age. Rod Burtin replied, "We've been playing together since the sixth grade. We know each other's game." The team played with heart, and success came easily with six returning lettermen. The bench also contributed greatly to the success.

Throughout the regular season, they accomplished many feats including an undefeated OHC title. While competing against respectable teams they never allowed their opponents to break their two-year home winning streak. The Tygers roared into the tournament against OHC rival Ashland and easily captured the sectional crown. The boys displayed more endurance competing with Fremont Ross when they defeated them in overtime at the district semifinals. They defeated St. Francis for the district title. The team outmatched Brunswick to advance further in the tournament. The boys outran a bigger and stronger Cleveland St. Ignatius team to advance in the state tournament for the first time since the '84-'85 season. Finally, they represented Senior High solidly but eventually lost to Cincinnati Moeller, the state champions. With each advancement, the team was able to bring spirit back to the halls of Senior High.

Off season achievements were racked up by the Tygers. Leading the honors was Marquis Sykes who captured OHC Player of the Year, District Six Player of the Year, First Team Northwest District, Second Team All-Ohio, and became a member of the "1000 point" club. First Team All-OHC and Second Team District Six was achieved by Ali Thompson. DeShon Hilliard and Burtin both posted a District Six Honorable Mention. Collins distributed individual awards, also. MVP went to Sykes and Most Improved went to Herman Davis. Burtin achieved the Coach's award. Tri-Captains' awards were given to Sykes, Burtin, and Hilliard.

Faith keeps Lady Tygers going strong

Faith - that was the key word for the girls' basketball team. Despite numerous injuries and sicknesses, the team learned to stick together and rise above the adversities they faced throughout the season. Coach Andrea Thompson stated, "With all of the girls getting sick at the same time, it forced them to work harder as a team and become stronger."

The girls' record showed their hard work and dedication. They ended their season with 13 wins and only 9 losses. The girls unanimously stated that the highlight of their season was winning the first tournament game against Sandusky.

The team realized early in the season that in order to have a successful, winning season and to advance into tournament time they had to put differences between them aside and strive for the common goal. "Some of us may have had conflicts with one another, but on the court everyone became a family," replied senior Kendall White.

The team ended with the annual awards banquet leaving, once again, Dionne Goodwin with Most Valuable Player. She also left with OHC Player of the Year, First Team District 6, First Team Northwest District, All Ohio Special Mention, and District 6 player of the Year. Kendall White received the Coaches' Award. Tyanda Hammock earned Honorable Mention District 6. Both girls also left with Honorable Mention All Conference OHC. Niesha Lyndsay was awarded First Team All Conference OHC, Second Team District 6, and shared the Captain's Award with Goodwin.

Cheerleaders provide never-ending spirit

Who helped to motivate the team as they rushed onto the field or court? The cheerleaders! They helped create enthusiasm in both the players and the fans. The girls aided in pumping up a never-ending Tiger spirit. "We practiced, laughed, and cried together. We did everything. It was like having a family away from home," stated Angela Johnson. The entire cheerleading squad had to overcome many obstacles. In mid-season the girls lost their coach. In addition, they lost five varsity and four junior varsity cheerleaders. Nevertheless, they made it through together as a team. Moriah McIntosh stated, "We came out victorious. We had a new coach and seven excellent cheerleaders".

Latonya Black recalled, "The Freemont Ross tournament game was my favorite memory. I thought we were going to lose, but we came back with less than a minute and won 81-77". "I enjoyed cheering and getting to spend time with my squad" remarked McIntosh. However, Andrea Brooks recalled an embarrassing moment. "We were at our second pep rally and I fell in front of the whole school" admitted Brooks.

The cheerleaders stood behind the team and school. They cheered the boys' basketball team from the district regional finals all the way to state. Fans unanimously proclaimed that Moriah McIntosh was the most spirited cheerleader. Each girl ended their season earning varsity letters. This included Keisha Harrison, Latonya Black, Moriah McIntosh, Andrea Brooks, Jene'ya Darson and Tonnisha Lindsay.

Size doesn't stop Tygers

"Everyone got along pretty well. We were like a small family," remarked senior captain Nick Dewald. However, he added that the team suffered in size with only five swimmers.

Although this team was small in numbers they overcame that obstacle with camaraderie and hard work. The team was able to show that their respective skills could overcome with good planning and hard work. A good example of their extreme dedication was the strong attendance at two-a-day practices and a strenuous weight program. Due to team - oriented goals, the entire team qualified to swim at the district meet at Bowling Green State University.

The district meet gave the boys a chance to show their mettle, but seriousness never got in the way of fun for this "family." Tim Swain noted that there was a family bond not just on the guys' team, but also between the girls' and guys' teams. Matt Secrest replied, "One of the best times this season was when we silly-stringed Coach Bartholow."

Other accomplishments during the season included the team finishing fourth in the OHC meet with impressive individual performances by Kevin Vandernaald and Nick Dewald. Vandernaald finished second in the 100 yard butterfly with a personal best time of 1:00.37. Dewald rocketed to a second place finish in the 100 yard backstroke, shattering his previous time with a 1:04.47

The Most Valuable Swimmer award was handed to next year's team captain Matt Secrest. He exhibited prowess in every event he competed in during the season. The Most Improved award went to team captain Nick Dewald.

Tygers rebuild

"The power to win and the will to succeed are measured one stroke at a time." The girls' team took this motto to heart throughout the strenuous season.

After the loss of many seniors and a 5-4 record the Tygers deemed it a rebuilding year. "The season was filled with ups and downs, but we pulled together as a team to have a winning season," stated captain Emily Exten.

The girls faced many challenges such as stiff competition and fewer swimmers than in previous years. Also, there were exceedingly high chlorine levels which caused many swimmers to become ill. The pool condition was too poor for any type of competition. "We got through the challenges with good humor and team unity," remarked Kara Love.

The OHC conference meet was held at Malabar and the girls put up a valiant fight but finished in third place, behind Ashland and Lexington. Amy Hohenberger captured first place with her stunning performance in the 100 yard breaststroke and clinched second place in the 100 yard butterfly.

Eighteen girls competed in the sectional meet and many of the girls finished in the top six. Vying for thirty two district spots, the Tygers took seven girls to the District meet at BGSU. The Tygers showed strength by qualifying in all three relay events and three girls qualified for individual events.

This year's recipient of the Most Improved Swimmer award was freshman Sarah Exten and capturing the Most Valuable Swimmer award was Emily Exten. Shattering the long standing 100 yard breaststroke record was Hohenberger. She also replaced her own 100 yard butterfly record which was set one year ago.

Tygers prove themselves

“This is probably the team’s best year since I’ve been wrestling” stated senior Chad Dunham. This statement was echoed by all wrestlers and coaches.

The first success was the Coke Classic held at Madison High School. The team placed second at the tournament and defeated area power house, Madison. For their efforts the Tygers brought home their first trophy of the season. Coach Gerhardt was pleased with the valiant efforts of his team and commented, “We finished second place compared to the last place finish the year before.”

The J.C. Gorman tournament was cancelled because of snow, eliminating the chance for the Tygers to prove themselves against area teams. Therefore, they were up to the challenge that was provided by their North Union competitors. They took the opportunity to make the tournament at North Union another highlight in their season. They placed second out of eighteen teams, adding another trophy to their collection.

The biggest challenge of the Tygers’ wrestling season proved to be the OHC meet. “We went up against some talented guys” remarked Matt Yaden. Vince Longood and Jawaun “The Rock” Irving were both conference champions in their weight class. As a team, the Tygers finished fourth overall.

The Most Valuable Player award was given to Jawaun Irving due in part to his advancement to the State tournament and several top finishes. Matt Yaden received the Most Improved award, and he shared the Captain’s award with Vince Longood. Finally, Coaches’ awards were received by Chad Newton and Ryan Shiplett.

Publication staffs produce successful year

The goal of the yearbook and newspaper staffs is to capture the many memories high school provides. Both staffs did exceptional jobs in expressing a year's worth of brilliant moments through words and pictures.

The Hyponerian staff started the year off with a bang by pumping out the first edition in September. Advisor Ann Kay kept the staff on track by cranking out a total of eight publications. Adam Troyer felt the greatest challenge in production was meeting deadlines and condensing everything into the paper. The staff worked well together and produced quality papers. Jenni Davis responded, “We have a rookie staff that was really hard working and very capable of producing superior newspapers.”

The Manhigan staff devoted a lot of hard work and time into producing a top quality book. The experience of the five returning seniors Matt Adair, Jackie Bell, Andrew Goosman, Mike LaFlamme, and Sara O'Bryan elevated the production to a new level. Bell commented, “This year's staff was well motivated and we were able to accomplish all tasks and meet the deadlines to produce a great book.” Andrew Goosman and Matt Adair remarked, “The staff worked diligently to produce the most perceptive and visually stimulating book to date.”

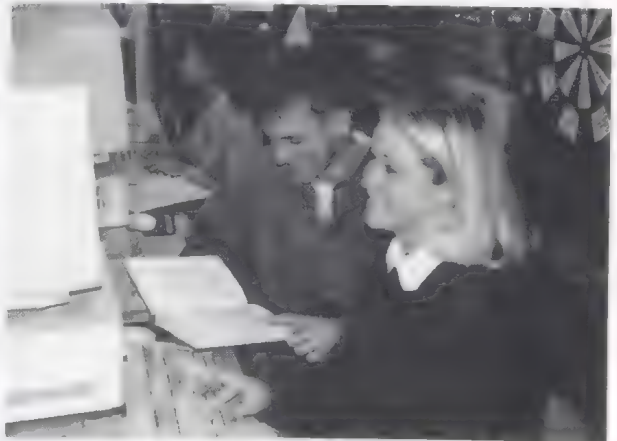

Producing a quality yearbook is not accomplished without strenuous work at times. “The greatest challenge was taking adequate action photographs of school events,” replied Sara O'Bryan. Advisor Christine Hurst remarked, “This year has definitely been the smoothest because the seniors didn't suffer from senioritis and the whole staff worked vigorously to create a strong book.”

Students conquer obstacles

The drama department offered plenty of opportunities. They performed several one-act plays and a musical. Starting the school year out was Take Five. This was a one-act comedy of errors. Chevy Troxell stated, "Our goal was to make the audience laugh". That was exactly what they did.

The next one-act play was Cagebirds. This was directed by senior Athena Lilibridge. "There were many challenges in delivering the message" remarked senior Jodi Dean. The characters portrayed birds dealing with the fear of change.

Next was an excerpt from Romeo and Juliet. The major difficulty with this play was the cancellation of practices due to numerous snow days. "We all became a part of a big family" replied Amber Sloan. Despite the snow days, they excelled beyond their expectations in a short period of time.

The year's finale was Once on this Island. This musical portrayed two young people from opposite ends of the social ladder who fell in love. This production crew had to overcome many obstacles. Katie Graffice responded, "Now that I look back at it, my favorite part of the production was overcoming the problems that we had and realizing how much we can actually accomplish when we concentrated and put our minds to it". The cast did overcome their difficulties and the show ended in great success.

The casts and crews pulled together and carried out their tasks. Senior Missie Feltner concluded, "I have learned so much. I learned that commitment is a huge part of being in a production. You can't skip a couple practices and expect to be able to catch up; if you slack, it shows".

by Jodi Dean, Kira Crawford, and Brit-tany Profit

"Directing is not easy, even for a small play. Cooperation, patience, and dedication are the major keys to a well-prepared and organized production. I also found that it's good to have a back-up plan if things go wrong. It all pays off in the end, however, and it's definitely worth trying." — Athena Lilibridge, student director

Tyger runners overcome obstacles

When asked what the challenging aspect of participating on a track and field team was, sophomore Anthony Trumpower responded, "It's more fun than challenging. I mean, getting better is the challenge, but that in itself makes the challenge fun".

The Tyger runners and throwers overcame some major challenges. Senior Monique Brent remarked, "The season was crazy, especially when my sister threw the baton at me in the 4X100m relay and I caught it, as well as Coach (Jackson) leaving".

Despite the challenges, the team prevailed and had an extremely exciting season including a boys' team second place finish at the prestigious Marion Night Relays. Adam Burdette's third place finish in the 100m dash at the seven-state Mehock Relays earlier in the season foretold this sort of success for the team. "My hard work and confidence throughout the season was a major part of this success," said Burdette, a junior member of the team.

On the girls' side, a rebuilding season placed the team in debt for a few key events, but they performed to the best of their ability and still managed a great season. Sophomore Kari Drouhard stated that the neat part of track isn't necessarily having a winning team. "It's the running with friends and getting to meet new people that makes track great" added Drouhard.

The team captains Monique Brent and Tim Drouhard did an outstanding job of leading the team to an impressive year. The Tygers' Most Improved athlete award went to Kladijah Daniels and Brandon Woodson. Coaches' awards most deservedly went to Ti'ana Lindsey and Anthony Trumpower. The last award given out was the Most Valuable which went to Brent and Burdette who proved their worthiness throughout the season.

Mehock remembers seniors

This year's Mehock assembly was a huge success. Senior Tonya Perry stated, "I think Mehock is a good tradition; not only does it honor the track team, but it also honors the seniors one last time." Mehock is a traditional competition which brings athletes from all over to test their track and field abilities.

The Mehock committee chose the theme Remember Me This Way. The court consisted of Monique Brent escorted by Tirus Bradley, Jodi Dean escorted by Nick Dewald, Tonya Perry escorted by Luke Tackett, Rashida Rawles escorted by Marquis Sykes, and Abby Trumpower escorted by Matt Adair. Mistress and Master of ceremonies Kierstyn Sliney and Adam William were chosen to lead the assembly.

Rashida Rawls proclaimed, "I was amazed that my peers thought so much of me to nominate me to represent the senior class." Little did Rashida know that she would soon be crowned the 1999 Mehock Queen. Rashida added, "My most memorable moment was opening the box and seeing the big tiger. I knew at that moment I was queen." Rashida was crowned by former queen Whitney Braggs and her escort Antwyan Reynolds.

Many members were both excited and nervous during the ceremony. As the members walked down the aisle their fears soon diminished. Escort Tirus Bradley remarked, "My first fear was if my zipper was open. But after I started walking I began to think about my high school years and the friends that shared those years with me." Jodi Dean exclaimed, "I was very excited throughout the entire assembly. It is a good event that our school and community can be proud of. This is an experience that will last for a life time."

Tygers are strong at heart

The Boys' Varsity Tennis team began the season with a rough start, but as senior captain Jeff Bell said, "We succeeded with numerous moral victories." The team had a 2-16 record, but they achieved in other ways. They added a new coach and aimed to rebuild. Controversy also inhibited the team as they disputed points with the Marion Harding Coach.

The team succeeded with victories over Ontario and Vermillion, and moved into the OHC Conference Tournament with confidence. Bell rearranged his game and joined Kevin Uhde at the first doubles position instead of his usual position of first singles. The doubles duo defeated Madison and took the only win at the tournament. Controversy still hindered the team when Marion Harding enforced point penalties for obscene language. The first time he called Bell on the penalty, it turned his game down hill. He was up in the set and lost his motivation with a defeat. There was tension at the next meeting with Marion Harding. After receiving a penalty point, Deming Miller ended his match with a defeat. Cameron Haring insisted, "My goal for the match next year against Marion Harding is to fine tune and avenge".

The Tygers rebuilt and aimed to achieve at OHC, and personal goals were obtained. Bell placed fourth at the sectionals in Sandusky, and he moved onto the districts at Bowling Green State University. The team went to support Bell and all represented Senior High well.

"Despite the season, the team competed well," replied Lee Hester. Coach Beatty distributed awards to Bell for MVP and Captain's Award. Hester received the Most Improved Award, and the Coach's Award was received by Uhde.

Team learns through tough season

"We learned not to quit and always keep trying" recapped senior James Diehl. The Tygers began the season with a rough start and never fully regained momentum throughout the twenty-five game season. Senior captain Steve Ferrell remarked, "The motto of the team was 'Do something everyday to make yourself better'."

The six seniors stepped up their play to carry the team through the strenuous season. James Diehl's pitching was a big factor for keeping games close with an ERA of 4.22. Steve Ferrell's (.432) and Jon Sazdanoff's (.354) batting drove the team to their victories.

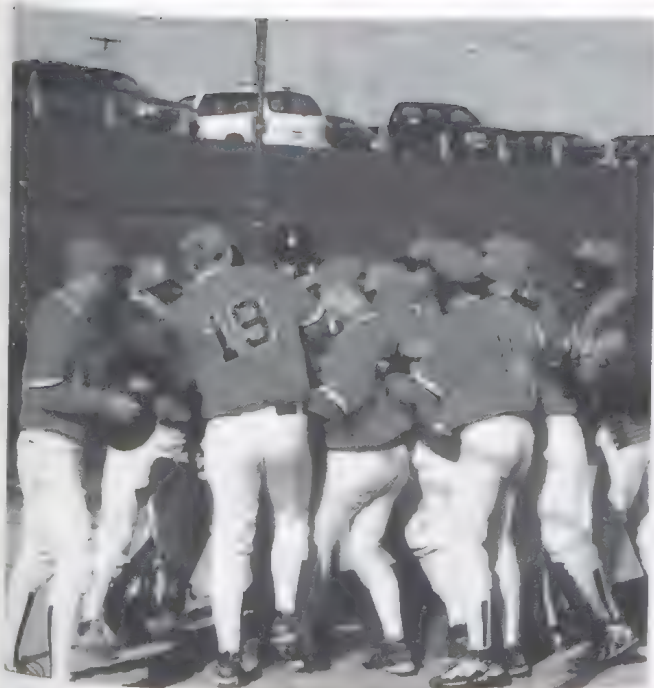

Preparation for the season began in mid February with conditioning workouts. When the weather finally allowed outdoor training the Tygers were there practicing fundamentals. After a slow start the Tygers faced arch rival and state ranked Madison. The game was kept close until a heart-breaking loss in the final inning. The Tygers finished the season with a final record of 4-22. Sazdanoff stated, "The season was a very trying time but we had the potential to be better." They boasted many returning lettermen and promising starters.

The awards banquet finished off the season. The Most Valuable Player went to Ferrell. Josh Stutz received the Most Improved award for his hard work throughout the season. The Captains award was given to Sazdanoff for his leadership. The Coaches' award was captured by Derek Lawrence. Coach Windbigler remarked, "This team has showed me to have more patience with pitchers and that I have grown through the years as a coach." by Matt Adair, Michael LaFlamme, Andrew Goosman and Alexis Miller

Team unity yields unforgettable memories

"We all got along well, and this resulted in positive attitudes and being prepared to play," reflected Desiree Williams. The Lady Tygers were almost even with a 10 - 12 record. They attributed their success to team unity, encouragement, and great pitching. The season's starting pitcher was one of only two freshmen on the team. Youngster Heather Cook received much praise from her teammates. "I consider her to be one of the best pitchers in the conference," commented centerfielder Sara O'Bryan. "The pitching was a lot faster and extremely accurate," added Lakiesha Brooks.

The Lady Tygers unanimously agreed that their victory over Ashland was the highlight of their season. The 1 - 0 victory was the first ever over last year's conference champs, the Arrows. "Ashland has always been a big rivalry and they had their best pitcher on the mound that day," exclaimed junior Brandy McGathy. The team played as one and the game produced many magnificent plays. The outcome was a long desired dream come true. The win was a major upset to Ashland and succeeded in boosting the Tygers' spirit even further.

At the conclusion of the season, Cook was awarded Most Valuable Player. Tara Duffy finished with Most Improved while Amanda Hersman left with the Coach's Award. O'Bryan captured the Team Captain Award and the Highest Batting Award. Conference awards went to Cook for first team, Brooks for second team and O'Bryan and Beth Ferrell for Honorable Mention.

Great performances showcase music programs

"The musical ensembles at Senior High are sometimes among Mansfield's best kept secrets; they represent the school and community well and deserve more recognition," replied Mr. John Riegel. The band, orchestra, choir, and jazz band all displayed their musical talents throughout the year.

The band started off the year with the additions of two new directors. Mr. Doug Carter and Ms. Kristen Stitler brought a fresh perspective to the music department. Mr. Jay Welenc commented, "They've jumped in with both feet and have done a fine job".

One highlight of the year was the band and orchestra trip to Virginia Beach. The band finished the event with an excellent rating and won first place in their class. Overall they placed second among all concert bands competing. "We had lots of fun at the awards ceremony in Busch Gardens. Mr. Welenc let all the seniors go up and accept the first place trophy," stated senior Jami Letizia.

The choir improved by adding more members to their ensemble. Mrs. Omen, the new choir assistant, also added a vibrant sound to the choir. Once again the choir made it to State. Quinton Holmes exclaimed, "We did a really good job".

The orchestra had a great year with their best performance coming at the State Orchestra Event. They also gave a strong performance during the Winter Concert at the Renaissance Theatre. Senior Hadley Lehman's favorite performance was playing in a trio at the Spotlight on Soloists concert in the spring.

Awards were given out at the spring concerts. Abbi Hoecker was presented with the National School Orchestra award. John Phillips Sousa awards were given to Sara Kohler and Shannon Smith. Sara Kohler also received the Louis Armstrong Jazz award. Band Senior Leadership awards were presented to Jackie Bell, Melissa Feltner, Katie Graffice, and Jami Letizia.

Seniors Never Let Go

"Prom was a very fun and exciting experience for me. Seeing all of my friends together for one last dance is something I'll never forget," reflected Brittany Liles. The prom committee chose the theme Never Let Go and the song Unchained Melody. The committee was directed by class advisors Mrs. Sheila Bellew and Mr. Taylor Gerhardt.

Unlike previous years, the senior class was given the opportunity to select a court which consisted of Jodi Dean, Joni Douglas, Kristin Coombs, Erin Payton, Jessica Mosey, Marquis Sykes, Nick Dewald, Rod Burton, Lance Ginn, and Jeremy Butts. Dean and Sykes were honored with the titles of Queen and King.

Another change for the prom festivities was a new after-prom location. The seniors chose the Infield where they were able to enjoy miniature golf, batting cagers, go-carts, video games, and karaoke. Storm Daly remarked, "Prom showed me just how much the Senior High administrators really get to know and care about their students".

One of the biggest challenges for the seniors was making sure everything came together smoothly. Both class advisors said that they wouldn't have changed anything. They felt the evening was very successful. Mrs. Bellew commented, "I was pleased that everyone could agree on everything".

The success of the evening was due to the hard work of the seniors and class advisors. "If it wasn't for Mrs. Bellew none of this would have happened. She put in tremendous time and effort that made prom extra special" responded Mr. Gerhardt. by Kira Crawford and Brittany Profit

Class of 1999 closes a century

The last class of the millennium ushered into the world 245 successful graduates. Class Day participants grossed $898,977 in scholarships and grants which put them more than $250,000 over the previous class. Numerous seniors received outstanding recognition for both athletics and academics. Emily Exten and Tim Drouhard accepted the honor to serve as the class Valedictorian and Salutatorian.

After numerous students made their rounds onto the stage for recognition, the senior class presented the school with a gift certificate for a tree and a plaque with the class motto: "Anything the mind of a graduate can conceive and believe it can achieve". It was the class officers' last request to have the tree planted at the new high school. Finally, upcoming class president Andy Higgins accepted the gavel from outgoing president Jackie Bell.

A smoldering hot day best described the Commencement ceremony held at Arlin Field. Bell sat the class down and reflected on the success of the class as a whole. Exten's Valedictorian speech reflected the pride of the graduates' friends and families throughout their educational experiences. Salutatorian Tim Drouhard urged the class to celebrate individualism in a poem titled "Song of Ourselves". He insisted that his accomplishments were no greater or less than any of the other graduates.

As the new millennium emerged, the graduates stepped into the unfamiliar world of work, college, or the military. Fond memories of teachers and friends followed their paths.

Jodi Dean —

Jodi,

Thanks for the joy you've brought us. Remember it's not about the destination, but instead enjoying the journey as you reach your dreams. We're proud of you.

We love you! Dad and Mom

Laura Hester —

Congratulations, Laura. Somehow we're confident you'll get what you want in life!

We love you. Mom, Dad, Lee, and Matt

Jami, Jason, and Jodi Letizia —

Remember all the good times, deck sleepovers, playing robot, and fondue dinners! The rough times made you strong and built character in you. It's not far from your knees to the floor; that's where your real strength is —

Jesus. I love you! You've made me very proud.

Love, Mom and Lindsay

Jodi, Jason, and Jami Letizia —

After changing thousands of diapers we can hardly believe 18 years have passed. You've grown up to be such wonderful adults, but you'll always be our "babies". May God help you with the future. We're proud of you! Love, Grandma, Aunt Janice, Uncle John, Aunt Bev, Uncle Bob, Jess, Jonah, and Uncle Chuck
